Pastoral Reflection

"Love God and Love your neighbor" captures the essence of Jesus' message. Today's First Reading contains a passage known as the shema Israel (Hear, O Israel, Deuteronomy 6:4),the central statement of belief of the Jewish people.
A high point in the synagogue service still today is the recitation of these words.
There is only one God, and God alone is Israel's God. This belief calls forth a total dedication to God with "your Heart, your soul, and your strength" God must loved with our entire being. A scribe (someone well trained in interpreting the Jewish Law) comes to Jesus in today's Gospel with a question: " Which is the first of all the commandments?"
This was a much-discussed question in Israel at that time with two main schools of thought: Rabbi Shammai was very strict, while Rabbi Hillel was more pastoral and taught that the whole law is summed up in the words "What you hate for yourself, do not do to your neighbor.

MATS FOR THE HOMELESS-- The Parish Council of Catholic Women appreciate the participation of our parishioners in collecting plastic bags for this project. Although we have crocheted about 7-8 mats that have been distributed to the homeless through social agencies, we have been unable to keep up with the supply of bags left at the church. So until the beginning of the year, we are suspending the collection of plastic bags. Look for a notice in the bulletin to restart .

We continue to gather the third Tuesday of the month at 7:00 p.m.in the Msgr. Smith Community Room, and could use more helpers. It is not necessary that you can crochet to participate with us. We now have two men who have join our group. All it takes is a small amount of instruction and the giving of your time. Most of the work can be done at home. It is not necessary to attend our meetings to participate, but it is a nice social hour.

So until next year there is no need to collect plastic bags for us. If you feel you can devote some time in helping us help the needy, join us at a meeting or give me a call to get started, Becky Stains at 717-732-5319

Parking Lot Project Update
Due to a combination of the weather and other projects that the contractor was working on, the church parking lot project has been put on hold for the winter months. The weather has turned too cold to mill and pave this fall and obtain an acceptable finished product. The contractor has agreed to a delay until spring, with all work to be completed by May. Although this is not the result we intended when we entered into this contract, it should result in a superior product than we would have had by doing the work in cool wet weather this fall.

The 177 Project is an initiative from Adoration Artists designed to help spark a renewal in parishes across the country. They are firm believers in the power of spending time in front of the Eucharist and want to encourage that through a worshipful evening that fosters community within and across parishes. Over the course of three months, more than a dozen of the most talented artists in Catholic music will split up into teams and visit all 177 different dioceses within the US. Each evening will be centered around a Holy Hour. Upon conclusion of the Holy Hour, attendees will have the chance to enjoy a concert put on by the musicians traveling as part of the 177 Project. During the event, attendees will have opportunities for confession, to pray for others, to hear about the importance of (and even respond to) vocations, to say the rosary, to engage with local and national ministries, and to interact in a variety of other ways. Adoration Artists believe that music is one of the few things that can be used to deliver Truth to people at all points in their Christian walks - from the nonbeliever to the devout. Their goal is to provide a mechanism for equipping talented Catholic artists so that they can more effectively use their gifts for evangelization. Adoration Artists helps these Catholic musicians fulfill their purpose and mission by investing into them and providing them with the resources and exposure they need to take their gifts and turn it into a
