Pastoral Reflection

Christmas Time ended with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on Monday, January 8, and now we enter “Ordinary Time.” a time to reflect on the life of Jesus and commit ourselves to following Him. Appropriately, then, the theme of today’s Scripture readings is God’s invitation and our response.

The first Reading tells the story of young Samuel who was serving in the Israelite sanctuary in Shiloh under the priest, Eli. During the night, Samuel was sleeping in the temple when he heard someone call, “Samuel!” He ran to Eli saying, “Here I am,” but Eli did not call him. Three times Samuel heard the voice, until Eli realized that God was calling his servant. He instructed Samuel to respond, “Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.” From that time, we are told, God was with Samuel, making all of His words effective.

Today’s Gospel invites us to reflect on another calling—that of Jesus’ disciples. In this call story it is John the Baptist who helps two of his own disciples recognize the Lord. When they go to Jesus, He initiates the encounter by asking, “‘What are you looking for?’—a key question for any seeker. Their response—‘Where are you staying?’—has profound implications. The Greek word menein means “to remain” or “to stay with,” and in John’s Gospel it also describes the divine dwelling within a person, like the relationship that Jesus has with the Father (see John 14:9-11; 15:4). The seeking and finding theme is also important here. Like those who seek Lady Wisdom in the Old Testament books of Wisdom and Proverbs, those who seek Jesus will find Him and become one with Him as He is one with the Father. At Home with the Word.

In His love and mine,
Fr. Ken

REMININDER: Please bring your Mass Journal and a pen to Mass every weekend! (Saturday/Sunday)

Do You Play the Piano?
Can you commit 2 hours a month to help out at the Bridges Nursing Home once a month at our First Friday Mass? We usually arrive at the Bridges by 10:00 a.m. and leave shortly after Mass around 11:30 a.m. If you are interested in participating in this fulfilling ministry, or would like more information, please call Mary Angus at 717-218-0273.

Rose for Life
To celebrate Pro-Life January, the Knights of Columbus will be giving Parishioners a Red Embroidered Rose in the Narthex after each Mass on January 20/21. The Rose is to be worn on the lapel of your coat to tell the world you value the sanctity and sacredness of all human life. When you see the rose, let it be a reminder to say a prayer for the protection of all life.

Parish Office Updates
As a reminder, the Parish Office will be closed on Monday, January 15, in observance of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday.
