St Katharine Drexel Parish Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the rich blessings that have accompanied the foundation and growth of this, the first parish in the world named in honor of Saint Katharine Drexel. Send forth the Holy Spirit to create in us insight, concern, and resolve to carry out our twofold parish mission of devotion to the Eucharist and assistance to the poor and marginalized of our society.

Nourished by the Body and Blood of Your Son, and by Your Word, may we generously share our time, talent and treasure as we live our community of faith as witnesses to the Good News of our Lord, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever.
Amen.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING: Exodus 20:1-3, 7-8, 12-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments: "I, the LORD am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me.

"You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain.

"Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you.

You shall not kill.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house.

You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 19:8-11

R. Lord, you have the words of ev - er - last - ing life.

READING: 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters:

Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

GOSPEL: John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace."

His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them,

“Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.”

The Jews said,

“This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?”

But he was speaking about the temple of his body.

Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing.

But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

LIVING OUT OUR PARISH MISSION—On March 3rd, we celebrated the Feast Day of Saint Katharine Drexel. During the homily at the 7 p.m. Mass, Father Ken announced that we, as a tithing parish, are twinning with the Diocese of Gallup, the poorest diocese in the U.S.A. It is home to indigenous people and it is one of the places where Saint Katharine Drexel made an impact by founding the Saint Michael Indian School and Sacred Heart Cathedral.

SACRED HEART CATHEDRAL

It was proposed, at a staff meeting, that perhaps we could “twin” with a parish in the Diocese of Gallup, perhaps with Sacred Heart Cathedral in Gallup, New Mexico, the See of the Diocese, which was erected to serve the needs of the Native American Reservations and Pueblos that surround it. When St. Katharine would travel into the town of Gallup, by train or stagecoach, or come in from the Reservation to purchase supplies, she would have to attend Mass at the Sacred Heart Parish.

This parish was at the time part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, served by diocesan priests for 21 years, until the Franciscans took it over. The Franciscans were already serving in this vast area after answering the call of Saint Katharine Drexel to come and serve the Native Americans in the area. In 1939, when Rome announced that the Sacred Heart parish would soon be the See of a new Diocese, it was four years after Mother Katharine suffered a heart attack. She probably heard the news while convalescing in her Motherhouse of the Blessed Sacrament Sisters.

Her influence was great in the area, as Mother Katharine helped fund and construct churches, including Sacred Heart Cathedral, and schools in both New Mexico and Arizona, now in the care of the Diocese of Gallup, (which crosses over the state lines). Some of her sisters still serve in the Diocese, particularly in places of the Navajo Nation in Arizona and the Laguna Pueblo in New Mexico.

That the Diocese of Gallup appreciates the great role Mother Katharine played in the Diocesan area, can be seen by visiting Sacred Heart Cathedral, which was built and dedicated in 1955, the same year Mother Katharine passed away. She is depicted in a stained glass window and there is a side altar which has a triptych similar to what we have downstairs in the library –which depicts churches she built in the Diocese and elsewhere in the country.

This impoverished Cathedral holds many funerals for those parishes on the reservations, due to the small size of reservation churches, and provides for the spiritual needs of Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Houck, AZ, This parish, on the Navajo Nation, was built by St. Katharine Drexel as well.

The Cathedral’s Family Center is now housing the Sacred Heart Catholic School which has been around for over 100 years. The old school building was quite a distance from the Cathedral, was very run down and had become too costly to repair. There was discussion of building a new school but the pandemic hit. So, the school was temporarily moved to the Family Center. In converting the Family Center into classrooms many expenses had to be incurred.

DAC / DIOCESAN ANNUAL CAMPAIGN—formerly known as our Diocesan Annual Lenten Appeal will begin this weekend. Those who have donated in the past, have already received a letter directly from the Diocese and are asked to consider prayerfully a response to this request for a pledge or donation. All other members will be sent a letter directly from the parish asking for a pledge or donation. Please read the bulletin and website on how these monies are used in the corporal and spiritual works of mercy for the people of our local Church in Harrisburg.

Our parish goal is $117,000.

Our parish has 700 households and each household is asked to participate by giving their fair share which is $170 over ten months (March – December 2021) or $17 a month.

If you are able to give more, please do what you are able. If you are not able to give the fair share amount, please do the best you can so we can meet our goal! If you choose not to give to the Diocese, please give your fair share over and above what you give as your regular parish tithe so we will not be in deficit or have to take it from ordinary income.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration. Your generosity to your Parish and Diocese is greatly appreciated.

Please note that checks should be made payable to:
*Diocese of Harrisburg.

We recommend that you mail your DAC pledge envelope and donation directly to the Diocese, but you may also place your envelope in the Offertory Baskets before any Mass.

These are some of the charitable programs that your donation supports:

- Adoption Program
- Formation program for Deacons
- Foster Care Services
- Hispanic Apostolate
- Interfaith Shelter for Homeless Families
- Summer Camp for Adults with Disabilities

For more information about the funding of these programs, see the Diocesan Impact Report at www.hbgdiocese.org/diocesan-annual-campaign/wp-content/uploads/2021/02/2020-Impact-Report-Digital.pdf

In January, the Diocese emailed the contribution summary for 2020 Donors.
